Guidelines for Contributors

Contributions to the Journal are welcomed on all subjects relating to the life and works of William Morris. The Editor would be grateful if contributors could adhere to the following guidelines when submitting articles and reviews:

1. Contributions should be in English, and word-processed or typed using 1.5 spacing, and printed on one side of A4 or 8.5 x 11 paper. They should be 5000 words in length, although shorter and longer pieces will also be considered.

2. Articles should ideally be produced in electronic form (e.g. as a Word.doc, or .rtf format). Please send your article as an email attachment to editor@williammorrissociety.org.uk, or on a CD, and marked for the attention of the Editor, JWMS, to The William Morris Society, Kelmscott House, 26 Upper Mall, Hammersmith, London W6 9TA, United Kingdom

3. Contributions in hard copy only are also accepted, and may be sent to the same address.

4. In formatting your article, please follow JWMS house style by consulting a recent issue of the Journal. Back issues are available from the William Morris Society at the above address, or online at http://www.morrissociety.org/jwms.samples.html.

5. An expanded version of these guidelines, which contributors are also urged to consult, may be found at http://www.williammorrissociety.org.uk/contributors.shtml, or may be obtained from the Editor. Articles which do not follow JWMS house style may be returned to authors for re-editing.

6. Copyright. Remember to obtain permission from the copyright owner/owning institution(s) (e.g. the Tate Gallery, William Morris Gallery, etc.) in order to reproduce any image(s) you wish to include. Please note that it is ultimately the author’s responsibility to secure permissions to reproduce images. Copies of permissions to reproduce copyright illustrations will be requested from authors by the editor once articles have been accepted for publication. Permissions relating to Morris’s own works should be sought from: The General Secretary, Society of Antiquaries of London, Burlington House, Piccadilly, London, W1J 0BE, United Kingdom, or by email at admin@sal.org.uk.

7. At the end of your article please include a short biographical note of not more than fifty words.

Please note that the views of individual contributors are not to be taken as those of the William Morris Society.
Notes on Contributors

Diana Andrews is an independent teacher, conservator and design historian.

Julia Courtney has recently retired from the Open University where she served as an administrator, research fellow and Associate Lecturer, principally in the Post Graduate Literature programme. Her PhD was on Charlotte M. Yonge, about whom she has co-edited a volume of essays. Other publications include articles in English Review, the Tennyson Research Bulletin and Hampshire Studies.

Peter Faulkner taught English at the University of Exeter until his retirement in 1998; he is a former editor of this Journal and Honorary Secretary of the Society.

Owen Holland recently completed his PhD on Morris’s utopianism at St Catharine’s College, Cambridge. He studied in the Faculty of English and also taught classes in literary criticism and practical criticism. He has published work in the New Theatre Quarterly, Social History and elsewhere.
