

Guidelines for Contributors

Contributions to the Journal are welcomed on all subjects relating to the life and works of William Morris. The Editor would be grateful if contributors could adhere the following guidelines when submitting articles and reviews:

1. Contributions should be word-processed or typed using 1.5 spacing, and printed on one side of A4 or 8.5 x 11 paper. They should be ca 5000 words in length, although shorter and longer pieces will also be considered.
2. Articles should ideally be produced in electronic form (e.g. as a Word.doc, or .rtf format). Please send your article as an email attachment to editor@morrissociety.org, or on a floppy disk or CD, and marked for the attention of the Editor, JWMS, to
The William Morris Society,
Kelmscott House, 26 Upper Mall,
Hammersmith, London W6 9TA,
United Kingdom
3. Contributions in hard copy only are also accepted, and may be sent to the same address.
4. In formatting your article, please follow JWMS house style by consulting a recent issue of the Journal. Back issues are available from the William Morris Society at the above address, or online at <http://www.morrissociety.org/jwms.samples.html>.
5. An expanded version of these guidelines, which contributors are also urged to consult, may be found at <http://www.morrissociety.org/jwms.guide.html>, or may be obtained from the Editor. Articles which do not follow JWMS house style may be returned to authors for re-editing.
6. Copyright. Remember to obtain permission from the copyright owner/owning institution (s) (e.g. the Tate Gallery, William Morris Gallery, etc.) in order to reproduce any image(s) you wish to include. Please note that it is ultimately the author's responsibility to secure permissions to reproduce images. Copies of permissions to reproduce copyright illustrations will be requested from authors by the editor once articles have been accepted for publication. Permissions relating to Morris's own works should be sought by email at admin@sal.org.uk. or from
The General Secretary,
Society of Antiquaries of London,
Burlington House,
Piccadilly, London, W1J 0BE,
United Kingdom,
7. At the end of your article please include a short biographical note of not more than fifty words.

Please note that the views of individual contributors are not to be taken as those of the William Morris Society.
